

PBG lifestyle

magazine

PLACE of HOPE

Expands Outreach to Boca Raton

Thrifty Couture

Sensational South Florida
Consignment Shops

CLASS IS IN SESSION

The Weiss School ♦ St. Mark's ♦ PBAU
Renaissance Learning Center ♦ The Hope Center
Back-to-School Gear ♦ Prepping for Preschool

Covering PBG, Jupiter, Stuart and West Palm Beach areas

August 2014 $4.95
www.pbglifestyle.com

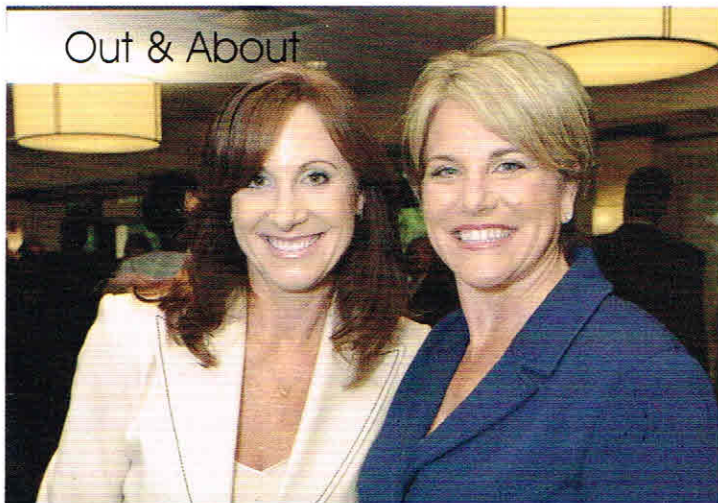

8 0 4 8 7 9 2 1 6 2 4 7

PERMIT NO. 296
TALLAHASSEE, FL
U.S. POSTAGE PAID
PSRT STD

Postal Patron

Out & About

2014 Gaeta Chairman's Award of Excellence recipient Michele Jacobs of The Gardens Mall with Beth Kigel, president/CEO of the NPBC Chamber of Commerce

Corinn Raffel and Rich Opton of Loggerhead Fitness, 2014 Small Business of the Year recipient

From Palm Beach State College, Dr. Jean Wihbey, Provost, and Scott MacLachlan, Dean

Stephen Froelich, GM/director at Lockheed Martin Corporation, 2014 Business of the Year recipient, with wife Laura

NPBC Chamber Fetes Local Leaders at Annual Dinner

by Amy Woods
Photography by Alicia Donelan

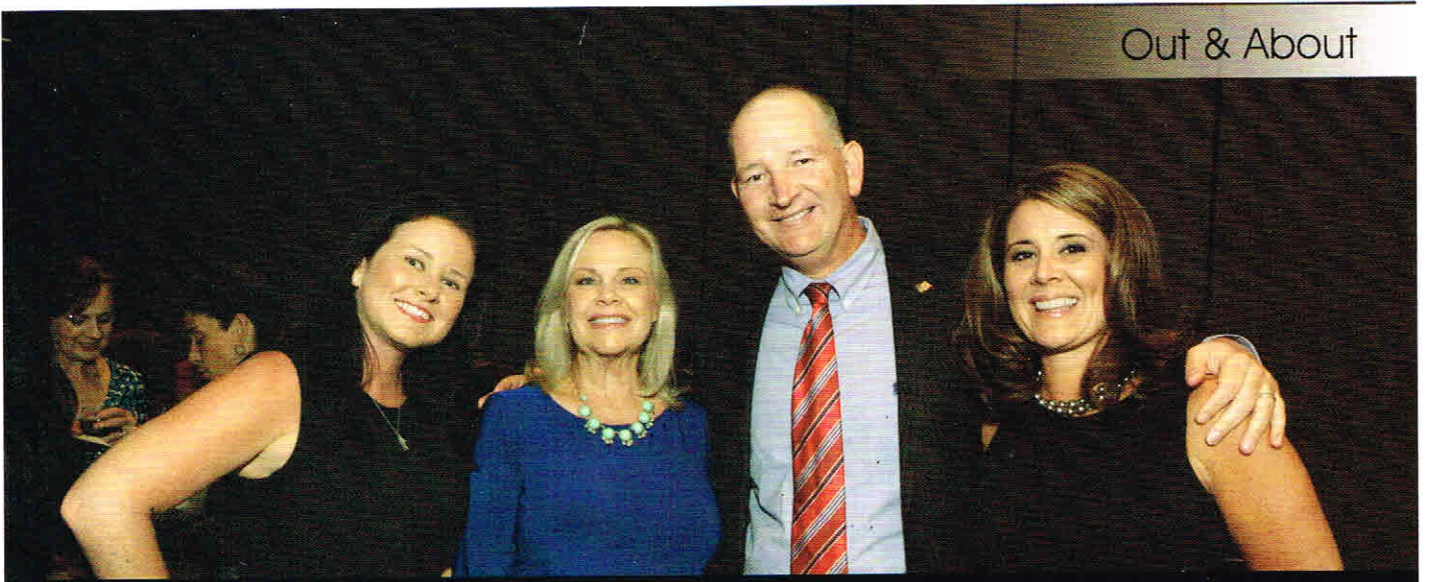

Two women, one man, a pair of local businesses and a nationally known nonprofit took center stage at the Northern Palm Beach County Chamber of Commerce's Leadership Awards Dinner. The annual affair drew 320 guests to PGA National to celebrate their peers' successes.

The Gardens Mall's Michele Jacobs took home the Gaeta Chairman's Award of Excellence while the Maltz Jupiter Theatre's Jennifer Sardone-Shiner grabbed the Young Professional of the Year title. State Rep. Patrick Rooney Jr. earned honors as Community Leader of the Year, and Business of the Year awards went to Lockheed Martin and Loggerhead Fitness.

"It's a surprise recognition of what our employees dedicate themselves to every single day," Stephen Froelich, of Lockheed Martin, said of the corporation's volunteer-service program. "We take our role in the community very seriously."

Place of Hope, which received a mention in a recent issue of People magazine, was recognized as Nonprofit of the Year.

"We are beyond excited," said Charles Bender, the agency's CEO. "It's one of the most special awards we have received."

Kaitlyn Decker, Sheri Healy, Patrick Rooney Jr., 2014 Community Leader of the Year recipient, and Alexis Barbish

From Place of Hope, 2014 Nonprofit of the Year recipient: Michelle Grande, Chris Grande, Eric & Sue Ende, Founding Executive Director Charles Bender III; Trish Bender and Don Hearing

2014 Young Professional of the Year recipient Jennifer Sardone-Shiner, center, with her colleagues from the Maltz Jupiter Theatre (L to R): Julie Rowe, Jay Johnson, Marie Dreher, Rachel Blavatnik, Jeff Barry and Janic Willison